MEMBERSHIP AND SERVICES APPLICATION

Important Information about Opening a New Account: To help the government fight the funding of terrorism and money laundering activities, Federal law requires all financial institutions to obtain, verify and record information that identifies each person who opens an account.

What this means for you: When you open an account, we will ask for your name, address, date of birth and other information that will allow us to identify you. We may also ask to see your driver's license or other identifying documents. Your account cannot be opened and/or transactions cannot be posted until this process has been completed.

GENERAL AUTHORIZATION AND AGREEMENT:

By signing below, I/we agree to the terms and conditions of this/these account(s) (and all other subaccounts which I/we establish in the future) as outlined in the Dow Credit Union Account Agreement and Disclosures and I/we agree to any amendment the Credit Union makes from time to time. I/We authorize Dow Credit Union to (a) open future accounts for which I qualify for upon my oral or written request and deposit of funds and (b) to transfer funds between my accounts or disburse funds in the form of a Credit Union check payable to me upon my written request. You are authorized to check my/our credit and employment plus answer any question regarding my/our credit experience with you. I/We acknowledge receipt of a copy of the Agreement and Disclosure applicable to the account and services requested herein. If an ATM or EFT service is requested and provided I/we agree to the terms of and acknowledge receipt of the Electronic Funds Transfer Agreement. The Internal Revenue Service does not require your consent to any provision of this document other than the certifications required to avoid backup withholding.
